

Hello,

My name is Jeremiah Hershberger. I grew up in a strong Christian home and I'm thankful that I heard the gospel at an early age. I struggled with my salvation until the age of 19. When I was at Bible college, I read 1 Peter 1:5, that says "We are kept by the power of God". At this point I realized that there's nothing I could do to be saved or keep myself saved other than to put my faith and trust in the Lord Jesus Christ. Once I put all my faith in Christ alone the doubts ceased.

My mother and father served in ministry until their divorce. I was 18 and a freshman in Bible college at the time. I understand the pressures that pastor's families go through. I watched the church my dad was pastoring split when I was in 9th grade and then my parents divorced while my dad was a pastor. Thankfully, God protected me so much through these things and I graduated Bible college and then served on staff at two churches with my wife Ambre for the next 13 years. God has blessed us with six wonderful children and we love to sing together and minister together as a family. Cleburne County Baptist Church in Heber Springs, AR is our home church where we served for the past 10 years as principal, song director, recovery program director, maintenance man, and many other areas. I love to preach the Word of God and assist others in what God has called them to do.

A few years ago God burdened us to start helping other pastors and churches. I moved to part time at our church and picked up part time jobs so I would be available to go out and help other churches on the weekends. We made at least twelve of these trips to help other churches beginning in 2020. Then God opened doors for us to assist Missionary Matthew Shields on the island of Aruba. We filled in for him while he was on furlough for two months and then returned again for 2 ½ months to help him plant a church on the other side of the island. God has burdened us to now go full time into helping church planters, pastors, and missionaries. We desire to encourage the servants of God as they are faithfully proclaiming the gospel.

Sincerely,

Jeremiah Hershberger
